77 BODIES FROM TITANIC RECOVERED

to go in search of the dead. The cable ship Minia was chartered and undertakers placed 150 coffins on board, while 100 tons of ice were stored away in the holds. A quantity of iron was also placed on board on board to be used in burying the unidentified. The Minia is under orders to meet the steamer Mackay-Bennett. The Rev. Hild will be transferred to Minia and the Mackay-Bennett then will proceed to port with the dead. The Minia when she sailed last night, established wireless communication with the Mackay-Bennett to endeavor to relay all important information to the shore. The list of 77 names as received at the White Star line offices last night follows:

L. M. Hoffman, Mrs. Alexander Robinson, William H. Harbeck, Malcolm Johnson, A. J. Halverson, H. W. Ashe, Leslie Williams, A. H. Rafter, Jerry Montross, Frederick Sutton, J. S. Gill, Ernest B. Tomlin, George Rosenblum, N. M. Arriotti, John H. Chapman, W. Colburn, H. Greenburg, Simon Socher, N. Coles Rasher, — Shes, George W. Widen, Ramon Aratagayevila, Nihil Spedig, steward No. 74, Yostie Drasnout, R. R. Att, Leslie Giffinski.

A number of the names in the list did not check up with the Titanic's passenger list, which led to the belief that a number of the bodies recovered were members of the crew. The White Star officials studied without success the meaning of some of the spellings and came to the conclusion that many of them were badly garbled because of the fact that the list had been relayed. It came by way of the steamer Lacomia to the Cape Race wireless station and was sent by cable to New York.

In the list as it came the following combination of names might have been intended for Maj. Archibald Butt's name.

PRIEST A HERO OF TITANIC SINKING

Ministers to the Dying as the Boat Goes Down; He Blesses the Women.

New York, N. Y., April 22.—Winnowed from among many pathetic stories of the Titanic catastrophe today was a tale of two clergymen who went down with the Titanic while ministering to the stricken passengers. One of the clergymen was the Rev. Thomas R. D. Byles, of Westminster parish, London, who was on his way to officiate at the marriage of his brother in Brooklyn, and the other a German priest, whose name is unknown. Father Byles was in the first cabin, and the German priest in the steerage. Both ministers had celebrated mass in the steerage Sunday morning. The story of their death was related today by three women survivors of the Titanic, Ellen Mocklare, Bertha Moran and Miss McCoy.

When the liner struck the iceberg, they said, Father Byles came down the steerage passageway with hand uplifted, commanding the people to be calm and giving them absolution and his blessing.

"He led us to where the boats were being lowered," said Miss Mocklare, "he meanwhile saying his prayers and helping women and children into the boats. He whispered words of comfort and encouragement to all. The passengers were deeply impressed by his self-control. Twice he refused to enter the boat and save himself."

One of the unfortunate survivors of the Titanic disaster, who, although her life was saved, is heartbroken because of the loss of her husband, Tyrell W. Cavendish, who also gave up his life that the women and children might be saved.

SUES PETROLITHIC COMPANY FOR $1000

Wm. E. Baker has filed suit in the 4th district court against the Petrolithic and Construction company to recover $1000 damages. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant company failed to keep red lights at its construction work at the intersection of North El Paso street and West Boulevard, as required by city ordinance and that his automobile ran into a hole there on January 19 and was badly damaged.

CONTRACTING FIRM SUES NORTH WESTERN

Bateman & Wicks, composing the firm of Gerald H. Wicks & Co., have filed suit against the North Western railway company in the 4th district court for $22,874.32 on a debt. The claim is made for work done in constructing the last link of the railroad company's Chihuahua division.

"Since the Time Of Noah"

In the opinion of Lewis Nixon, the celebrated naval architect, the present day method of launching and carrying lifeboats on ocean liners exhibits little or no improvements over the plans carried out by Noah on the Ark. One suggestion is made that space taken up by one lifeboat at the present time could have been occupied by five or more lifeboats if the davits were so constructed as to allow the boats to be placed one over the other.

CLARK CAMPAIGN BUTTONS
BEAR DOG KICKING MOTTO
"They Gotta Quit Kickin My Dog Around."
Campaign buttons distributed by the Champ Clark publicity bureau have made their appearance in El Paso and supporters of the Missourian with the Arkansas song are wearing them. Some of them have "houn dawgs" on them and others are just plain red buttons of celluloid, with the slogan printed in white letters. Don Johnson, who is a supporter of Clark, has been boasting his presidential aspirations and threatens to decorate every Missourian with one of these buttons just to get people to think about the speaker of the lower house in congress.

MANY IMPORTS RECEIVED IN EL PASO CUSTOM HOUSE TODAY

For some unaccountable reason, there were many imports through the port of El Paso Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning. None of them were large, but they show a variety of imports unheard of for many months. Lumber, cattle, drawnwork, a horse and Scotch whisky were some of the things. The Maderacompany brought in eight cars of lumber, M. Orpitz imported 39 head of cattle, J. F. Dougherty 466 head, and Pat Quinn paid duty on a Mexican horse. The Scotch whisky came directly from Scotland, imported through Galveston by an El Paso liquor house.

LAST OF "BIG FOUR" POLICE SQUAD TO BE A FARMER

Patrolman George E. Fletcher, formerly stationed at the union station and recently on night patrol duty on South Oregon street, has walked his beat for the last time, as he has resigned to go to New Mexico and homestead a claim. Mr. Fletcher is the last of the "big four" who guarded president Taft when he was here for the Taft-Diaz meeting.

Pretty Mothers

Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

Two Survivors and A Victim Of Titanic Disaster

Prof left to right: Mrs. George Widener, J. B. Thayer, and Mrs. J. B. Thayer. Both Mrs. Widener and Mrs. Thayer were saved, being among those picked up in the open lifeboats by the steamship Carpathia, but both women were widowed. J. B. Thayer and George Widener were among the heroic passengers who stood manfully by while their wives and children were given the preference in being launched to safety in the Titanic's lifeboats.

BRITISH PRESS RESENTS
AMERICAN PROBE OF TITANIC.
London, England, April 22.—The British press, which severely criticizes its own board of trade and demands the most searching inquiry, declines to judge the case until the British inquiry is held and displays feeling at the manner in which the American inquiry is being conducted and "what is regarded as the unfair treatment of J. Bruce Ismay."
The Morning Post in an editorial protests against American and German papers branding Ismay as a coward, and declares it was clearly his duty to live and help his company retrieve the disaster by facing the music.

The Daily Press describes the sensational inquiry as a parody of judicial inquiry, which it says is rather calculated to swing public sympathy heavily to the side of Mr. Ismay and the White Star company.

may did nothing disgraceful, yet is attacked as though he played the part of a shameful coward.
